Masonic Masters' Association

Roster Book

2008

Objectives of the Masonic Masters' Association

The objectives of this Association are to foster a closer relationship between the officers and members of the Lodges affiliated with the Association, to safeguard the ancient Landmarks of Masonry, to exchange ideas, to assist one another in the social or ritualistic functions of the various Lodges, and to promote a stronger bond of fellowship among the Craft.

Purpose of this Booklet

This booklet is published in the interest of Masons in south-eastern Michigan. It is hoped that it will assist in the communication and promotion of closer fraternal relations between member Lodges. The Master, Wardens and Secretaries of each member Lodge will receive a copy of this booklet. Copies may also be purchased from the Association's Secretary. It is necessary that the information needed to complete this booklet be received by January 15th each year. Secretaries are reminded to send in the completed form to the Association's Secretary immediately after their Lodge's election.

For Funeral Homes

This Roster Booklet is delivered to Funeral Directors as an aid to help them render a more personal service with a minimum amount of effort. When making arrangements for a deceased Mason please contact the Lodge Secretary. This booklet contains the phone numbers needed to make contact.

Roy A. Woodworth Meritorious Service Award

Worshipful Brother Roy A. Woodworth was a member of Northwestern Lodge No. 529 in Detroit Michigan who served the Masonic Master's Association as Secretary, Honorary Senior Warden, Roster Book Editor and mentor to many. He laid down his working tools in 1986. In his memory, the Association annually presents an award to an outstanding Mason who has performed long and faithful service to the Association, to Masonry in the greater Detroit area or to one of the Association member Lodges. Nominations for this award may be any member of the Association or by a member Lodge. Announcement of the winner is made at the annual installation of officers.

CONSTITUTION & BY-LAWS OF THE MASONIC MASTERS' ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 1-NAME

Section 1

This Association shall be known as the Masonic Masters' Association.

ARTICLE 2-OBJECTIVES

SECTION 2

The objectives of this Association are: To foster a closer relationship between the Officers and members of the Lodges affiliated with the Association; to safeguard the ancient landmarks of Masonry; to exchange ideas and to assist one another in the social or ritualistic functions of the various Lodges; and to promote a stronger bond of fellowship among the Craft.

ARTICLE 3-MEMBERSHIP

Section 1

There shall be two types of membership in the Association: Lodge and Individual.

Section 2

A Lodge membership in this Association shall consist of the Worshipful Master, Senior and Junior Wardens, and Past Masters of all Lodges under charter or dispensation of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Michigan. Each Lodge Membership shall be entitled to one vote in the Association which shall be cast by the highest ranking officer present or by the most recent Past Master or other designated member if no officer is present.

Section 3

An Individual membership shall be open to any person interested in the objectives of the Association. An individual member shall enjoy all the rights and benefits of the Association except the right to vote.

Section 4

Motions may be made by any member of this Association, whether or not qualified to vote, and free discussion of all motions may be participated in by all duly qualified persons present, or by permission of the presiding Officers.

ARTICLE 4-MEETINGS

Section 1

REGULAR MEETINGS. This Association shall hold a minimum of seven monthly meetings a year to be established by the President of the Association at such place as may be designated at any meeting of the Association. Special meetings may be called by the President, or upon the petition of five Worshipful Masters, made to the President in writing.

Section 2

All meetings of the Association shall be open to, and admission shall not be denied to any Master Mason in good standing, except at the discretion of the presiding Officer at that particular meeting.

Section 3

ANNUAL MEETING. The meeting held in the month of January shall be designated as the Annual Meeting, at which time all Officers shall be elected for the ensuing year. The candidate receiving the majority of the votes cast by the qualified members present and voting shall be declared to be elected to respective Office for which the ballot was cast.

Section 4

QUORUM. The members of the Association at any regular or special meetings shall constitute a quorum provided the President, President Elect, or Vice President is present.

ARTICLE 5-OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1

The Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, President Elect, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall be elected at each Annual Meeting, and a Chaplain who shall be appointed by the incoming president before the installation of Officers. The office of the President shall be a Past Master who has served sometime during the previous year as President-Elect of the Association. In the event that such Brothers are unable to serve, the office of President shall be a Past Master who has served sometime during the previous five years as an officer of the Association. Only Worshipful Masters and Past Masters of a Member Lodge shall be eligible to hold the Offices of President-Elect and Vice President. Any member of the Association shall be eligible to hold the offices of Treasurer, Secretary, and Chaplain.

Section 2

PRESIDENT. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings, and to have general supervision over all the activities and interests of the Association, and to perform all other duties incumbent upon his Office. He shall also appoint a Chaplain and all committees, who shall serve at the will of the President.

Section 3

PRESIDENT-ELECT. It shall be the duty of the President-Elect to preside at all meetings in the absence of the President, and to perform such duties as are incumbent upon his office.

Section 4

VICE PRESIDENT. It shall be the duty of the Vice President to preside at all meetings in the absence of the President and the President-Elect, and to perform such duties as are incumbent upon his office.

Section 5

SECRETARY. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a correct record of all the proceedings of each meeting and to attend all correspondence of the Association and to notify all members of regular and special meetings. He shall receive all funds paid into the Association, keep a regular account of the same, and turn them over to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefore. He shall issue all warrants for the disbursement of funds authorized by vote of the Association. He shall notify all depositories of any change in Officers authorized to sign checks. With the notice of each annual meeting, he shall mail a copy of these By-Laws to each newly-elected Worshipful Master, and they shall be read preceding the election of the Association's Officers at the Annual Meeting.

Section 6

TREASURER. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all monies from the Secretary, giving his receipt therefore, keep a regular account thereof and disburse them only by consent of the Association, by a majority vote of qualified members present at any regular or special meeting, on a warrant issued by the Secretary. All checks shall be signed by any two of the three elected Officers of the Association, the President, the Treasurer, or the Secretary. He shall also make a quarterly report and an annual report to the Association.

Section 7

CHAPLAIN. It shall be the duty of the Chaplain to lead the Association in all of its devotions to the Deity.

Section 8

UNAUTHORIZED ABSENCE. Any officer missing two consecutive regular meetings shall have be deemed to have resigned his office upon vote of the members present at the next regular meeting.

ARTICLE 6-VACANCIES AND HOW FILLED

Section 1

If the office of President shall be vacated, the office shall be filled by a Past Officer of the Association elected at a regular or special meeting of the Association. Vacancy in the Office of President-Elect shall be filled by the advancement of the Vice President to President-Elect. Vacancy in the Office of Vice President, Secretary, or Treasurer shall be filled by a majority vote of the qualified members present at any regular or special meeting, provided notice of such pending election has been mailed to the Worshipful Master of each Lodge affiliated with the Association at least ten days previous to said meeting.

ARTICLE 7-DUES

Section 1

Each Lodge membership shall pay an annual fee of $45.00 and each individual membership shall pay an annual fee of $15.00.

ARTICLE 8-AMENDMENTS TO, OR CHANGES IN, THE CONSTITUTION AND/OR BY-LAWS

Section 1

Amendments to, or changes in, the Constitution and/or By-Laws may be proposed by any member of the Association. Such proposed amendment or change must be submitted in writing at a regular meeting, or at any special meeting called for the purpose of receiving such amendment or change and must be held over until the next regular monthly meeting, provided; that thirty days shall have elapsed between the time of proposal of such amendment, amendments or changes, and provided also; that the Association Secretary shall furnish a copy of the proposal of such amendment, amendments or changes to the Worshipful Master of each Lodge affiliated with the Association at least ten days prior to such meeting. Any amendment or amendments germane to such duly proposed amendment may be proposed and voted upon at the time of final action upon said proposed amendment change.

Section 2

Approval of any proposed amendment, amendments and/or changes shall be by affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the qualified members present and voting.

ARTICLE 9-COMMITTEES

Section 1

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE. It shall be the duty of this committee to act as an advisory committee on questions referred to them by the President.

ARTICLE 10-CONTRIBUTIONS

Section 1

The President or Secretary of this Association shall immediately, on learning of the death of a Grand Lodge Officer, Masonic Masters' Association officer, Past Grand Master, or Past President of said Association will telephone the Grand Secretary's Office and order a Memorial in the Golden Book of Memories at Alma in the amount of not less than twenty five ($25.00).

ARTICLE 11-DISSOLUTION

Section 1

In the event of dissolution all assets will be distributed to the Michigan Masonic Home a 501c3 organization located in Alma, Michigan.

Revised 17 March 2005.
